Both Houses then went into an election for United States Senators, and elected Lieut.-Gov. Lewis for the long term, and Judge John W. Johnston of Washington County for the short term. The Wells Republicans' can-didates, Alexander Sharpe and L. H. Chandler, received the votes of their friends. MCTUAL VS. ATLANTIC-VICTORY FOR THE NEW-YORKERS.

It was a raw day yesterday, one on which not many care to experience the cold, damp wind in attention to business, much less to witness a ball game in an unsheltered field; yet there were upward of 2,000 people who paid their money and took their chance of chills and fevers and aches to see the return game between the Mutuals and Atlantics, at the Union largest number of votes ever polled by a Republican in the district.

LABOR MOVEMENTS

The mass meeting of Varnishers and Polishers, called for last evening, was failure, as not more than 25 persons appeared. The meeting was called to take action for an advance of wages. The total number of Varnishers and Polishers in this city and number of Varnishers and Polishers in this city and number of English speaking, is about 550; the number outside the unions is about the same.

The Journeymen Clothing-Cutters of this city, who have been idle for six weeks past, owing to the scarcity of work, will resume work on Monday next, when the Winter season in that branch of business will commence. Five firms alone will employ 330 cutters, who are now idle, or working on half time.

The Painters of Brooklyn are to open a reading-room, in connection with their Society. BURGLARIES AT CENTERVILLE, N. Y. A gang of burglars made a descent upon the village of Centerville, N. Y., on Monday night. The hotel of John Cox was entered and ransacked, but only $1.50 in currency was taken. The next place viai ted was the large grocery store of Bernard Waters, and from the manner in which drawers, boxes, and papers were scattered over the ground near it, it is supposed that a part of the gang remained outside while the rest accomplished the work inside. Two pocketbooks containing valuable papers were taken, and $15 in money, and a quantity of tobacco and clgars, while everything portable was thrown around in the greatest disorder. Mr. Waters had only that day taken a large sum of money from the till and placed it in the eafe in his sleeping apartment. No arrests have yet been made.

DARING ROBBERIES AT FULTON FERRY-WHERE ARE THE POLICE!
To the Editor of The Tribune.

SIR: On Saturday night last some thieves poarded a schooner lying alongside the pier adjoining Fulon Ferry, and, after collecting a quantity of wearing apparel, were about to decamp, when they were interrupted by the timely appearance on deck of one of the crew, who had been aroused by the noise. The thieves effected their escape. On Sunday morning following, between 11 and 12, while numbers of individuals were passing along South at., an old man, William Carleton, residing at No. 170 Broome-st., was garroted and robbed by two well-dressed young men, on the same pler. The thieves threatened to throw the old man into the river if he offered any reassance or made any outcry. After taking from their victim everything of value he possessed, the rogues made off in the direction of Fulton Ferry. On Monday, at about 4 p. m., Mr. A. A. Alberga, commission merchant, of No. 44 Exchange-place, was hustled and robbed of a gold watch valued at $200, while passing through Fulton Market on his way to the ferry. Where are the police 1. by the timely appearance on deck of one of the crew,

OUR JUDGES.

To the Editor of The Tribune. SIR: The leading paragraph upon your editorial page this morning [Oct. 14] is one that must surely have crept in by inadvertence; but the error it contains is so serious as to call for explicit correction. The paraclerke of the Supreme Court is not to be renominated, as an evidence that the Tammany managers feel the necessity of improving the character of the bench. Now, the truth is, as every lawyer in the city knows, that Judge Clerke is preeminent among upright and impartial Judges, and that his defeat would be the most fatal blow to the cause of good government in this city that could possibly be inflicted this year. Not long ago, it seemed as if this disaster was inevitable; but I am giad to know that it is now more than probable that Judge Clerke will be reflected, as he was in 1861, by a unanimous vote. Certainly every Republican lawyer in the city will vote for him, and so will every honest man who knows what his real character is. His fearless resistance of all corrupt influences, and his faithful discharge of all his duties, have already secured him the public indorsement of every respectable member of the bar; and The Taibune will, I am sure, hasten to correct the grave mistake which it has made in this matter. graph in question mentions the supposed fact that Judge

AN APPEAL TO THE WEALTHY AND BENEVOLENT OF NEW-YORK.

To the Editor of The Tribune. SIR: One of the most fearful and destructive rain storms that ever occurred took place a few days since in this vicinity, by which the destruction of life and property was the consequence. A cloudy and dense atmosphere indicated rain, and finally the clouds culminated into a terrible rain storm, which lasted 24 hours, and afterward the Basket stream rose to an immense hight, and then carrying destruction and consternation to the terrihod inhabitants of our once beautiful valley. Houses, barns, mill dams, lumber, etc., etc., were carried away into the whirlpool of destruction. The following persons are those who suffered severely: Mrs. Elizabeth McDuffle, who was the owner of one of the largest circular saw-mills in the county, had the dan swept away and the mill considerably injured; several thousands will not cover her loss. McDuffle & Fibbz, formerly lumber manufacturers, lose about $1,000; of this sum they expected to pay many of their liabilities. Samuel Miller, contractor and lumberman, loses from $5,000 to $4,000; this loss falls severely upon him. The Conches, the Lavallees, and others lose severely. The valley now presents a scène of unparalleled desolation; gloom and despondency now pervade the inhabitants of the valley, who have had their houses, barns, &c., so suddenly swept away from them. Consequently they are in a deplorable condition, and need pecuniary assistance immediately to relieve their immediate necessities. An appeal is now made to the wealthy and benevolent to contribute by subscription for this humane and philanthropic cause. The smallest amounts in money will be gratefully received and duly appreciated.
